

Data Analytics Across Disciplines 2018 Conference

Data Strategy and Governance: Embracing Best Practices

Friday, November 2, 2018
8:00am to 4:00pm

Presenters:

Michael D. Moskal,
Sr. VP and CIO,
CUBRC, Inc.

*Data Governance and Security:
Tips and Best Practices for Long-Term Success*

Sara Collins, Policy Counsel,
Future of Privacy Forum,
Education Privacy Project

Embedding Privacy Expectations in Data Governance Plans

Lou Galway,
Senior Business Solutions
Manager, SAS Institute Inc.

Adapting Quickly to Data Quality Challenges in the Real-World

Jennifer A. Beckage Esq.,
Managing Dir., Beckage, PLLC

*What Really Happens When You
Have Been Breached: Practical Considerations From a Breach Lawyer*

Data strategy and governance is essential within all levels of the organization.

Data abundance brings benefits for data-driven decision-making and also poses challenges due to legal, regulatory, financial, logistical, political, ethical and social implications.

Participate in roundtable discussions to identify needs and create structure in organizations.

Organizers:

Uma G. Gupta Ph.D.,
Professor of Business
guptaug@buffalostate.edu
Phone: (585) 489-4606

Joaquín Carbonara, Ph.D.,
Professor of Mathematics
carbonjo@buffalostate.edu
Phone: (716) 878-6423

Location: Jacqueline Vito LoRusso Alumni and Visitor Center
667 Grant Street, Buffalo, NY 14213

Parking: Onsite, email directions to follow

Pre-Registration: *Required
*Nominal fee will include Lunch + snacks

See Website for Registration & Complete Schedule:

<https://digitalcommons.buffalostate.edu/daad/2018/>

Sponsored by:

